ORDER

By this Order, the commission: (1) approves the Parties,'<sup>1</sup> May 11, 2005 Stipulation in its entirety;<sup>2</sup> and (2) amends the Regulatory Schedule established by Order No. 21670 to the extent that it is consistent with the modifications noted in the May 11, 2005 Stipulation.

<sup>1</sup>The Parties in this docket are the DIVISION OF CONSUMER ADVOCACY, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND CONSUMER AFFAIRS ("Consumer Advocate"), CHEVRON USA ("Chevron"), TESORO HAWAII CORPORATION ("Tesoro Hawaii"), SHELL OIL COMPANY ("Shell"), and the HAWAII PETROLEUM MARKETERS ASSOCIATION ("HPMA") (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Parties").

<sup>2</sup>On May 12, 2005, the Parties submitted a letter, dated May 11, 2005, memorializing their agreements as to their proposed adjustments to the Regulatory Schedule and proposed, particularly relating to the scheduled technical meeting with the commission's consultant on May 19, 2005 ("May 11, 2005 Stipulation").

I.

Introduction

To facilitate its investigation initiated in this docket, the commission issued Order No. 21670 on March 1, 2005 establishing a Regulatory Schedule, which is attached to Order No. 21670 as Exhibit "A". Among other things, the Regulatory Schedule provided the Parties the opportunity to hold a technical meeting with the commission's consultant, ICF Consulting ("ICF") on May 19, 2005.

In accordance with the Regulatory Schedule, the commission, on behalf of ICF, issued ICF's report entitled Implementation Recommendations for Hawaii Revised Statutes Chapter 486H, Gasoline Price Cap Legislation (the "Report") on April 15, 2005.

On May 12, 2005, the Parties filed their May 11, 2005 Stipulation for the commission's review and approval.

II.

Discussion

The Parties' May 11, 2005 Stipulation states, in relevant part, as follows:

[T]he Parties are scheduled to have a technical meeting with ICF to discuss the Report. The purpose of this meeting is to facilitate subsequent procedural steps including the issuance of information requests to ICF and the formation of the Parties' respective positions. The Parties, however, are concerned that a joint meeting [on May 19, 2005] involving all of the Parties and ICF may encroach upon, or at least have the appearance and perception of impinging upon, antitrust matters, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance matters, confidentiality matters, as well as other areas proprietary concerns. Thus, the Parties have agreed on the following recommendations that would substantially alleviate the Parties concerns:

1. The Parties suggest that the meeting with ICF be structured such that ICF will meet individually and separately with each Party and the Consumer Advocate. Each individual party meeting would be for a maximum of four hours each (including breaks). A Party shall be permitted to have, in its reasonable discretion, those persons it desires to participate on its behalf at such Party's individual meeting. The following is the proposed schedule of the individual meetings with ICF and the Party asking questions ("Individual Meetings"):
  - a. Wednesday, May 18, 2005 (from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.) - the Consumer Advocate and ICF
  - b. Thursday, May 19, 2005 (from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon) - HPMA and ICF
  - c. Thursday, May 19, 2005 (from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.) - Chevron and ICF
  - d. Friday, May 20, 2005 (from 8:00 a.m. to 12 noon) - Tesoro and ICF
  - e. Friday, May 20, 2005 (from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.) - Shell and ICF
2. The Parties agree that the first Individual Meeting between the Consumer Advocate and ICF will be attended by only the Consumer Advocate, ICF and [commission staff]. The other four Individual Meetings will be attended only by the Party designated to meet at the time specified in paragraph 1. above, ICF, the Consumer Advocate, and the [commission staff].
3. The Parties agree that a Party may allow participation by a Party's representative(s) by telephone conference in to such Party's Individual Meeting with ICF. In order to conduct these Individual Meetings in Upon review, we find the Parties' May 11, 2005 Stipulation to be reasonable. Thus, the commission concludes that the May 11, 2005 Stipulation should be approved in its entirety, and the Regulatory Schedule established by Order No. 21670 should be amended to the extent that it is consistent with the modifications noted in the May 11, 2005 Stipulation. In all other respects, Order No. 21670 should remain unchanged.

III.

Order

THE COMMISSION ORDERS that the Parties' May 11, 2005 Stipulation is approved in its entirety, and the Regulatory Schedule established by Order No. 21670 is amended to the extent that it is consistent with the modifications noted in the May 11, 2005 Stipulation. In all other respects, Order No. 21670 remains unchanged.
